Comprehension Check #1 Bonus Question

Read the quotation below. As a team, use and cite text sources to answer the questions that follow.

“The world needs to be reminded that all human ills are not curable by legislation, and that quantity of laws and excess of government offer no substitute for quality of citizenship.”

—Warren G. Harding, Return to Normalcy, May 14, 1920

In your own words, describe Harding’s attitude toward the role of government, based on this quotation from a presidential campaign speech. Choose one of the policies of the Harding administration and write about whether you think it was consistent with this attitude.
