

Active Student Engagement: The Key to Instructional Delivery

Lisa Drummond, Austin
Independent School District
Marty Hougen, The University of Texas at Austin

Dueling Charts

THINK: of one of your most challenging students
TURN: to your partner
TALK: share a description of the student's challenges
SHARE: a one-word description

To increase student achievement through active student engagement

- Features of effective instruction
- Activities to engage students

Features of Effective Instruction

- Systematic instruction with scaffolding
- Explicit instruction with modeling
- Multiple opportunities for practices
- Immediate corrective feedback
- Progress monitoring

S SIT UP

L LEAN FORWARD

A ACTIVATE YOUR THINKING

N NAME KEY INFORMATION

T TRACK THE TALKER

Rapid Fire Rehearsal

SLANT

Ed Ellis, 1991
Edge Enterprises

S
L
A N
T

The Meadows Center
for Preventing Educational Risk

7

Continuous engagement....

- Popsicle Sticks
 - Pinch Papers
 - White board
 - Magic board
- The Meadows Center
for Preventing Educational Risk
- 8

And there's more....

- Pick a partner
 - Look, Lean, Whisper
 - (A. Archer)
 - Think, turn, talk
 - Snowball Fight!
- The Meadows Center
for Preventing Educational Risk
- 9

Types of Syllables

- | | | |
|-------------------------|-----|-------|
| • Closed | VC | dog |
| • Open | V | me |
| • Vowel-consonant-e | V-e | rope |
| • Vowel Pair | VV | pail |
| • Vowel-r | Vr | star |
| • Final stable syllable | [| bugle |
- The Meadows Center
for Preventing Educational Risk
- 10

Thank you!

Lisa Drummond

lisa.drummond@austinisd.org

Marty Hougen

mhougen@austin.utexas.edu